Notes

- 1 PIA 202 may also satisfy the PIA 210 requirement.
- 2 Refer to the College of Fine Arts' chapter in the 2020-2022 Undergraduate Catalog for ensemble requirements.
- 3 Registration for RHE 306 is based on birth month. Those with an even birth month will register in the fall and those with an odd birth month register in the spring.
- 4 UGS 302 or 303 must be taken in the first year of enrollment at the university. Students are encouraged to take this course in the fall, as there are fewer offerings in the spring.
- 5 When taken in residence, Music 312C may either be counted toward the visual and performing arts requirement of the core curriculum or toward the three-semester-hour writing flag portion of the core curriculum English composition requirement.
- 6 At the discretion of the music theory and composition faculty, a student may be required to complete more than two semesters of Music 224J.
- 7 For the upper-division music media requirement, choose from one of the following courses: Music 329E, 329F, 329G, 329J, 329M, 350S.
- 8 For the upper-division music literature requirement, choose from one of the following courses: Music 331J, 334 , 337, 342, 343J, 376J, and 379K.
- 9 Upon approval of the music theory and composition faculty, a composition major must present a recital of his or her works. The recital must be approximately thirty minutes in length and must consist of works approved by the student's composition instructor. It is normally given during the student's last semester of Music 224J. It is graded by a jury of designated music theory and composition faculty members. The student must receive from the jury an average grade of at least B- for the recital; if the average grade is less than B-, the student, upon approval of the music theory and composition faculty, must present another composition recital.
