Intern Scholarship Opportunities

Fine Arts Careers Services (FACS) and the College of Fine Arts (COFA) are pleased to announce two intern scholarship funds: The Meredith and Cornelia Long Internship Fund and the Becker Intern Scholarship. These need-based scholarships offer undergraduate and graduate fine arts majors the opportunity to professionalize their artistic and entrepreneurial ambitions. Students must demonstrate significant financial need in order to receive a scholarship.

Students may apply for up to $2,000 of funding to support their internship experience. Students who are traveling outside of Austin for their internship may apply for an additional $1,000 to use towards travel and lodging.

Eligibility

- Be an undergraduate or graduate student with a major in COFA
- Demonstrate financial need
- Have identified an acceptable internship (students who are awarded a scholarship will need to provide documentation of the internship offer before funds are disbursed).
- As of Spring 2018, students may only receive the Intern Scholarship once during their time at UT. Students who received the Intern Scholarship prior to 2018 are eligible to receive the scholarship twice during their time at UT.

To Apply

- Complete the online application at <http://www.bit.ly/facsinternapp>
- As part of the application you will be asked to:
  - Upload an updated resume
  - Upload the completed budget form, which can be downloaded at <http://www.bit.ly/internbudget>
  - Write a 250-300 word statement demonstrating the opportunity's professional significance
  - Write a 250-300 word statement demonstrating the student's financial need
  - Statements that are under or over the word count will be disqualified
